The City of Hialeah a Nominee for “Green” Award

Hialeah, Florida –Mayor Julio Robaina is honored to announce that the City of Hialeah has been nominated for the Best Sustainable City in the USA Award. The Award is presented by the Developers and Builders Alliance as part of the 6th Annual Community Advancement Awards and honors outstanding individuals and organizations in the construction industry that have made major contributions to a community’s growth and quality of life through their leadership, veracity and determination.

Over 250 cities, including Hialeah, were reviewed for the Category of Best Sustainable City in the USA. Hialeah has been selected as one of the five finalists.

The Awards will be presented during the Community Advancement Awards gala, being held November 8th in Palm Beach.
